

Ann Landers (Continued from Page 9) ber. My husband refuses to get an unlisted number because he's afraid the children might be ill and he wouldn't know it. What shall I do? — NOT MRS. BELL.

Dear Not: A collect call cannot be completed unless the receiving party accepts the call. So it's up to your husband to refuse her calls if he doesn't wish to speak to her. Suggest that he call her periodically to check on the kids.

Dear Ann Landers: Our daughter is 19 years old. She has been married for over a year and is expecting a baby in four months. Doris' husband is an unemployed genius who can't stay on a job for more than six months because he knows more than any boss he ever worked for. Doris has an M.A. degree in English and has a fine position teaching school. Because of her condition she will not be able to work more than another month or two at the outside.

Their trouble started on their honeymoon. Reginald would wander out "to buy a newspaper" and not come back until dawn. He "lost" his wallet on the third day of their trip and Doris had to pay all the motel bills and buy the gas and oil.

To put it frankly, he is a lazy bum and it's apparent that she made a big mistake. What shall we do? — CONCERNED PARENTS

Dear Concerned: Nothing. It is her mistake and her lazy bum.

Make it plain you will always be on hand to give her bed and board but say or do nothing to encourage your daughter to leave her husband.

Confidential to EENY MEENY MINY MO: Why don't you straighten yourself around and tell Eeny and Meeny that there ain't no Mo?

Confidential to FRIEND OF YOUR BROTHER: Look, Bub, I don't have a brother. I suggest you put your imagination to work on the Great American novel and leave me alone.

Ann Landers, frank and informative new book, "Teen-Agers and Sex" ($2.95), is now available at your book store. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
